OMIT PARADE AT ELK CONVENTION

Boston, May 21—The parade that is usually a prominent feature of the national convention of the Order of Elks, will be omitted at the gathering here in July. Edward Rightor, grand exalted ruler, has written to the committee endorsing its recommendation that the parade be dispensed with, and saying that "all displays should be avoided and the efforts of these in attendance at the convention be centered on determining the best and most patriotic service that the order can perform."

Joan of Arc

A GIRL and a man are the idols of the French people.Joan of Arc—a mere child in years, ignorant, unlettered, but possessed of a soul of holy patriotism—roused a nation to her standard of liberty in 1429 and won lasting freedom for France.OVER in the war scarred sections of fair France today a man holds the destiny of a nation in his hand.
He is General Nivelle, pride of a nation in 1916.The army he leads—the greatest army in his nation's history—is fighting to preserve for the people that which Joan of Arc gave to them.
